

Our commitment to your privacy and security

The security of your personal information is important to Root Function Wellness, PLLC (hereinafter "COMPANY"). To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data security, and ensure the correct use of information, COMPANY has adopted stringent security standards. These standards include physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect and secure the information that we collect from you. Under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), you have certain privacy and security rights concerning your health care information. Under this law your healthcare provider generally cannot give your information to your employer, use or share your information for marketing or advertising purposes, or share health records without your written consent. As one of your healthcare providers it is our responsibility to keep your information safe and secure. We also need to make sure that your information is protected in a way that does not interfere with your healthcare. It is important that you understand that your information can be used and shared in the following ways:

- For your treatment and care coordination. Multiple health care providers may be involved in your treatment directly and indirectly.
- With your family, friends, relatives, or others that you identify who are involved in your health care or health care bills.
- To protect the public's health, such as reporting when the flu is in your area.
- To make required reports to the police, such as gunshot wounds.
- Obtain payment from third party payers.
